INDIAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION (IPSA)

About us

The Indian Political Science Association (IPSA) is the highest, the oldest and the largest academic and professional body of teachers and scholars of Political Science and Public Administration in India. This is the national association and non-profit registered organization. The aims and intellectual traditions of IPSA are- Advancement of Political Science; Scientific Study of Politics; Dissemination of Knowledge, and Rigorous Political Enquiry.

The Indian Political Science Association was established in December 1938 on the advice and invitation of Bharat Ratna Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya at Varanasi. Pandit Govind Ballabh Pant, the then Premier of United Province (presently Uttar Pradesh), was invited to preside over the inauguration of IPSA. The need to start an association had been felt for a long time and it was in May 1938 that it was actually decided. A circular was issued at the end of August 1938, inviting cooperation of scholars of Political Science for this auspicious journey. The first conference was held on 22-24 December 1938 with the singing of Vande Mataram song. Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya, the Vice Chancellor, welcomed the delegates and spoke briefly of the pressing political issues facing the country. Dr. A.S. Altekar took the delegates to Sarnath for excursion. Dr. P.N. Banerjee of Calcutta was elected as President and Sri Gurumukh Nihal Singh of Banaras was elected as Secretary and Treasurer. Dr. Beni Prasad of Allahabad and Dr. V.S. Ram of Lucknow became Vice Presidents.

In September 1939, the IPSA started publication of a quarterly journal entitled "The Indian Journal of Political Science (IJPS)". In 2009, the IPSA started publication of a bi-annual journal in Hindi entitled "Bhartiya Rajniti Vijnan Shodh Patrika". Prof. Sanjeev Kumar Sharma became the first Editor of the Hindi journal.

In its history of more than 86 years, IPSA has organised Annual Political Science Conferences regularly. Renowned political scientists of the country from all regions and institutions have held positions in IPSA Executive Committee and the Editorial Board. IPSA has held events throughout the country from Lahore (1940) to Trivandrum (1948), from Bombay (1941) to Calcutta (1950), from Waltair (1957) to Ahmedabad (1966). IPSA Conferences have been held more than once at: Chennai (4), Mysore (3), Jaipur (3), Calcutta (3), Meerut (3), Hyderabad (3), Jodhpur (2), Agra (2), Aligarh (2), Poona (2), Ujjain (2), Lucknow (2).

The IPSA invites you to become the member of the association and actively participate in its activities.

The Indian Journal of Political Science (IJPS) is the quarterly peer-reviewed and refereed journal published by the Indian Political Science Association in March, June, September and December every year. Started in 1939, the IJPS is one of the most reputed and refereed journals of Political Science at international level and, in fact, the foremost journal of the discipline at the national level. We feature research articles pertaining to issues and practices of Political Science, Public Administration, International Relations, practices of Governance in India and around the world and also select papers of inter-disciplinary nature that delineate the trajectory, progress and issues of the contemporary world. It is also a platform to culminate into a dialogue amongst the scientists of the field. It also invites books for review. The IJPS has been included in the UGC CARE list.

The journal has, over more than eighty-six years, evolved as a major publication of scholarly works on ideas and issues important to the study of politics. It seeks to promote greater collaboration and exchange of ideas among political scientists in India and abroad. The position of the Editor of the Indian Journal of Political Science had been occupied by renowned political scientists of the country at various points of time.

The IJPS has now completed 86 years of its publication. The periodicity and regularity of IJPS at national and international levels has also increased tremendously. The website of the journal www.ijps.net.in has been providing most of the updated information. The national and global abstracting and indexing of the papers published has also been restored to a great extent. The online issues of all the years of IJPS and available one JSTOR. The size of the journal has grown substantially and its representative character has made the journal truly a publication of a national body with global association. It has become the best avenue of interaction and dialogue between Indian political scientists as well as international community.

One copy of the manuscript, typed in double spacing throughout, should be sent to 'The Editor' at officeipsa@gmail.com in MS Word format only. The first page of the paper should bear only the name(s) of the author(s), designation, complete postal address, mobile/telephone number and email, title of the paper and 100 words curriculum vitae of the author(s). The second page should contain an abstract of 100 words and the title of the article, but not the author's name. Manuscripts should normally be between 4000-6000 words. Manuscripts which are not in the style of the journal will be rejected summarily. The articles are subjected to anonymous pre-review before being accepted for publication. A complimentary copy of the journal shall be supplied to the principal author.

Duplicity

Dual submissions are not accepted. Please attach to every submission a covering letter confirming that all the authors have agreed to the submission and that the article/paper is not currently being considered for publication by any other journal. Submission of an article implies that it has not been published or accepted for publication elsewhere.

References

At the end of the paper, all references should be consolidated in a single list starting on a new page. References should be placed in the text in superscript numericals. The list on the last page should include the author's name, title, publisher, place and the year of publication, page number. Authors are particularly requested to verify that each text reference appears in the list, and vice versa. Jargon should be avoided. Technical terms not widely understood should be clearly defined; and the conclusions of statistical analysis should be set out in prose, as well as being supported by quantitative information in tables and text as appropriate.

Subscription and Membership

Life Membership of IPSA and the subscription to the journal is a pre-requisite for consideration of the paper but mere subscription does not qualify the paper to be accepted or published. The subscription details are as follows.

Indian Vision of Political Thinking

Editors :

Sanjeev Kumar Sharma
Ansuiya Nain

Studies on Indian tradition of political thinking have been scarce in the discipline of Political Science. The Indian Journal of Political Science has committed itself to the promotion of studies on various aspects of Indian idea of governance and dimensions of political functioning. The present volume provides a multi-dimensional view of the nature, scope and frameworks of political discourses in the Indian intellectual tradition. The articles have covered a wide range of areas with extensive and in-depth analysis of the phenomenon of political structures and functioning in India.

Professor Sanjeev Kumar Sharma is presently the Vice Chancellor of Mahatma Gandhi Central University, Motihari, Bihar, and the General Secretary and Treasurer of the Indian Political Science Association. Experienced in teaching, research, and administration for around four decades, Professor Sharma has contributed tremendously to the growth and development of the discipline of Political Science in India through his sustained efforts. He has widely published, globally travelled, extensively taught, and profusely spoken at national as well as global platforms.

Dr. Ansuiya Nain holds a Ph.D on Good Governance in Indian Concept of Rajadharma. Deeply engaged in research on various aspects of ancient Indian politics, she has published a good number of research papers on different dimensions of Rajadharma in Sanskrit literature. Dr.

Ansuiya has a penchant for understanding and analysis of the Indian Sanskrit texts with a perspective of political thinking.

STATE POLITICS IN CONTEMPORARY INDIA

Editors

Sanjeev Kumar Sharma - Ansuiya Nain

The present book is a collection of the research work appearing in the Indian Journal of Political Science over last decade. The presentation is intended to highlight the dynamics of political functioning at state level in different parts and regions of the country. The present volume attempts to cover major dimensions of state politics apart from usual election studies and therefore, provides a kaleidoscopic picture of analytical understanding of the local and national issues from divergent regional perspectives. The book aims to conduct a contemporary survey of the changing dynamics of state politics with a national outlook.

Professor Sanjeev Kumar Sharma is presently Vice-Chancellor, Mahatma Gandhi Central University, Motihari, Bihar. He is also the General Secretary and Treasurer of the Indian Political Science Association for more than a decade. With a vast experience of teaching, research, and university administration of four decades, Dr. Sanjeev Kumar Sharma is actively engaged in formulation of ideas into action-oriented plans through sustained efforts. He is widely travelled academician with extensive exposure to Sanskrit, Hindi, and Urdu literature.

Dr. Ansuiya Nain is a young Political Scientist with intense academic vigour and enduring intellectual enthusiasm. She has published research papers mainly on ancient Indian Politics. She is presently working on her ICSSR sponsored Post-Doctoral fellowship on 'Values in Indian Sanskrit Literature'.
